

Arista Certified Services Partner, Service Delivery Engineer

ARISTA

ACE
SDE Specialist

ACSP

SKILLS ACQUIRED

Designed to train partner professional services engineers on the skills required when deploying Arista Data Center or Campus solutions.

WHO IS IT FOR?

ACSP:SDE Specialist course is targeted towards professional services partner engineers with at least mid-level networking experience who are comfortable with Layer 2 & 3 technologies and configurations.

Beginner

Expert

LAB TIME

This course includes hands-on instructor demos walking through the required PS documentation needed for a successful PS engagement

COURSE OVERVIEW

ACSP:SDE Specialist is a 2-day course designed to train partner professional services engineers on the skills required when deploying Arista Data Center or Campus solutions. The course provides an overview of the Arista PS framework and methodologies that our partners can adapt to fit their existing services.

Arista Professional Services

Arista Professional Services

- Professional Services Overview
- Migration Overview
- Professional Services Model
 - Customer Requirements Document (CRD)
 - Low-level Design Document (LLD)
 - High-level Design Document (HLD)
- NRFU (Network Ready for Use) Testing

Our aim is to provide high quality training that is flexible and accessible for modern needs.

Instructor-led Training

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Verification from an official Arista training partner is required to register and take an exam. Instructor-led and self-study options are available. Look for these badges prior to purchasing your training.

